'R' Made Simple

Nancy L. Geruntino, MA, SLP

Entirely different approach to 'R' remediation. This is a motor planning program that categorizes speech sounds into three categories – UPs, DOWNs, or SLIDEs – based on the placement of the articulators prior to production of the 'R' sound. A mnemonic color-coding system aids students in learning the correct tongue placement for each category. Methodology generalizes to any word in any context and overcomes barriers related to pronunciation, spelling and dialect to become automatic over time.

Curriculum Supporting

One program that addresses all 'R' sounds in all contexts!

- Includes instructional manual and reproducible materials on CD for drill practice, word lists, data collection, pre/post tests, and homework activities.
- Plus! Free 30-minute training video to assist you in implementing the program.

Complete 'R' Program.
Requires minimal preparation time.

Articulation Theatre Books

Claudia Doan, MS, CCC-SLP

Target 6 sounds simultaneously during group therapy!

Allows students to participate in the same fun and effective group therapy activity despite working on different speech sounds. Motivates students to engage in the repetitive practice needed to achieve articulation goals. Each book contains matching plays and pagination, but each targets one sound - /R, S, L, Sh, Ch, Th/.

NEW!

Here's how it works!

Ryan is working on /r/, Sally on /s/ and Logan on /l/. Ryan selects the R-Book, Sally the S-Book and Logan the L-Book. They each open to same page, which has the same play theme. However, each book features unique script lines focusing on that target sound. As students take turns reading aloud their lines, focusing on their target sound, they are performing together in the same humorous play. No preparation needed!

Color My Conversation 2nd Edition

Rosslyn Delmonico, MA, RSLP, CCC-SLP

Teach children the skills of face-to-face conversations

Comprehensive, multisensory social skills program for students with developmental disabilities including autism spectrum disorder. Pragmatic methods guide students through the conversation flow: the basic greeting, bringing up and changing topics, use of “WH” questions, and how to close the conversation. Fun, interactive activities help foster social awareness, self-regulation, executive function, and meta-cognitive and meta-linguistic skills. Ages 5-14.

- Great alternative to the sole use of technology to teach social skills
- Complete lesson plans ready to go – minimal preparation time
- Easily adaptable to diverse caseloads and different levels of abilities
- Outlines specific steps for real face-to-face conversations
- Integrates into both general and special education populations

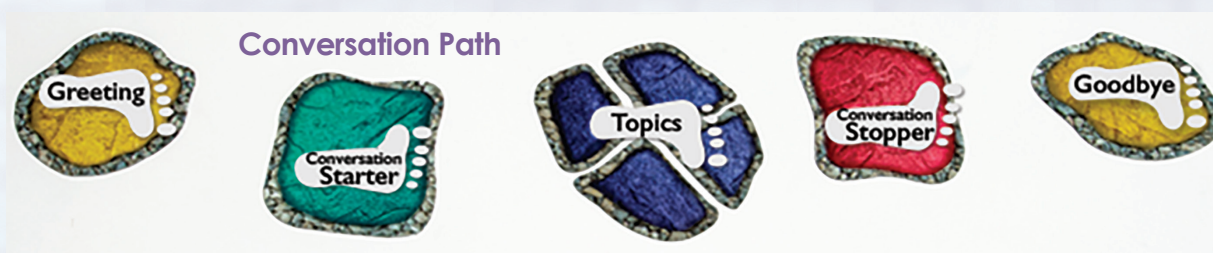

★ Curriculum
Supporting

Beginner Level

The “Conversation Path” floor pads prompt students with each step to start, maintain, and conclude a conversation. Children toss the ball to learn turn taking as well as establish eye contact.

Group Rates Available

It's easy, flexible, and affordable:

- > Simply have a group of 3+ SLPs*.
- > Select from any of our eCourses and register for that course together.
- > Choose if you want to study together or individually - it's totally up to you!
- > Complete the course and print off your certificate right away.
- > Your hours will be automatically submitted by us to the ASHA CE Registry.

Don't forget that you still have access to all the course content even after completion!

*Rest assured: Even if you register together, you may work at your own pace and there is no expiration date to complete the course. Our group offer discount applies to any regular priced eCourses (except #e01) but never expires! So, the next time you want to take another NSS eCourse, be sure to gather your group again.
